Lesson, but instead of doing so, she told the surprised presidency of the change in program and acted as master of ceremonies in what proved to be a most delightful afternoon of entertainments and refreshments. The three ladies were given presents as mementoes of their labors.

Each of the officers was made the recipient of a beautifully engraved gold brooch.

RURAL ROUTE DOES BIG BUSINESS

For the past month Mr. Wm. Hadfield has been keeping account of the business done on his route running out from the Lehi post office. During April he has distributed 13,910 pieces of mail to his patrons, and collected 1,865, making a total of 15,775 pieces handled. The total weight was over one ton, or to be exact 2,139 pounds. His stamp sales for April was $40.00, and during this time he sold 41 money orders.

The fiscal year, which closed March 31st, was the biggest in the history of the Lehi post office.

Kirkham's Return From Canada

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Kirkham and five children returned to Lehi this week after an absence of about twelve years spent in Raymond, Canada, where Mr. Kirkham was Supt. of the Knight Sugar factory. A large part of the sugar factory was dismantled and boxed ready to ship to Utah, when Government and Railroad officials intervened. The factory will probably start up in two years.

After visiting for some time Mr. and Mrs. Kirkham will go to Layton, where Mr. Kirkham will accept a position in the new sugar factory building there.

Mr. Kirkham reports the many Lehi people in Alberta as doing fine. They have had bounteous rains and indications are that they will have a bumper wheat crop this year unless the cut-worms, which seem to be epidemic, get the crops.

Farmers Buy By Wholesale.

The Farmers Society of Equity this week ordered a car of farm implements and a half car of steel grain bins. The car of implements will consist of self-binders, mowing machines, disk harrows, hay rakes etc. They have sold their members several cars of coal and will order a car of lumber.

On binding twine they have effected a saving of 25 per cent. Last year an implement dealer in a neighboring town sold the farmers twine at 12 cents. This year he is offering them twine at 9 cents to meet the rate made to the society, and this too in the face and general higher prices prevailing over last year.

JUNIOR BAND GAINING FAME

Lehi's Junior High School Band is making a great hit. Saturday they played for a dance at Pleasant Grove, and gave such excellent satisfaction that they were invited to come again. Their fame has gone away back to Ohio, where a publishing company has written for their photo to run in a musical magazine. Melvin Smuin, their director, has been asked to organize a similar band in a neighboring town.

NEW BAKER ARRIVES

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Ball of Salt Lake City, arrived in Lehi and will make this city their home. They are occupying the Manning Cottage on First East Street. Mr. Ball has purchased the bakery on Main Street from John S. Evans and will take charge about May 15th. He comes with a good record as a baker. Hundreds of dollars go from Lehi to Salt Lake City for bread annually. This will be unnecessary hereafter.

Bid Imported Sugars
"Farewell"

Sever your relationship with imported sugars today. You pay more for them. But you do not get one whit more quality in them than you do in Utah-Idaho Sugar. In some instances you get less.

On every point—cleanliness, purity and preserving strength, it has won with an almost perfect score.

It is commented upon very favorably by the country's biggest buyers of sugar.

The quality of Utah-Idaho Sugar has been tried, tested and found true. It has been found to equal that of any sugar known.

Throughout this intermountain territory, no other sugar counts with Utah-Idaho Sugar in the run for big business.

See that your sugar orders hereafter are for—
